IFSC COMBINED QUALIFIER TOULOUSE 2019

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

1 Quotas

1.1 Event and Athlete Quota

Quota Places for the 2019 Qualification Event will be allocated to Athletes by name. The Athlete Quota will be 20 for each gender, men and women.

1.2 Selection Criteria

The Athlete Quota within each gender will be filled from:

- 1) the highest ranked Athletes from the IFSC Combined World Cup Ranking as at 01 November 2019; and/or
- 2) where following (1) the Athlete Quota remains incomplete, the highest ranked Athletes from the 2019 World Championship Combined Ranking,

in each case

- a) excluding any Athletes who have a confirmed Quota Place for Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games following the 2019 Combined World Championship; and
- b) subject to a National Quota of two (2) Athletes.

2 Athletes Eligibility

To be eligible to participate in the IFSC Combined Qualifier, all athletes must:

- a. Hold a valid International Licence issued by the IFSC at the date of the Registration Date for the relevant event;
- b. in respect of the 2019 Qualification Event only, has not been the subject of either
 - i) any disqualification from competition under Article 3 of the IFSC Rules in the 2019 year; or
 - ii) any doping violation under Article 4 of the IFSC rules;

IFSC Partners:

- c. Have a valid rank in the Combined World Cup Ranking during the 2019 year and as further specified in Section 3.2 of this document.

3 Confirmation Process for Quota Places

The IFSC will publish the results of the:

- IFSC Combined World Championships within two (2) days after the last day of the event on its website at link
- IFSC Combined Qualifier within 2 days after the last day of the event on its website at link

The IFSC will follow the steps outlined in Section G Qualification Timeline of the Tokyo 2020 Qualification System document for confirmation and allocation of quota places.

4 Reallocation of Unused Quota Places

If an allocated quota place is not registered to the event by the NF by the registration of quota place deadline, the quota place will be reallocated to the next eligible best-ranked athlete respecting NFs quota allocation.

In case there are no athletes eligible from the Combined World Cup Ranking (there are no eligible names on the Combined World Cup Ranking), then the quota place will be reallocated to the next best-ranked athlete, not yet qualified and respecting NFs quota allocation, at the IFSC Combined World Championships (WCH) 2019, Tokyo, (JPN).

5 Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games Quota Places

For each gender, the six (6) highest ranked Athletes from the 2019 IFSC Combined Qualifier will each be allocated a provisional Quota Place for Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games, which will be subject to acceptance/confirmation by their NOC.
